PREPARING FOR BIG TRADE DAY

Meeting of Retailers and Chamber of Commerce Takes Action.

Last evening a joint meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association and the Chamber of Commerce was held. A report was made by the committee having in charge the Trade Day, and it was decided to go ahead with the enterprise. Besides cash donations to meet the necessary expenses of the occasion, a considerable number had donated merchandise to be given as premiums. A committee had already worked out a preliminary scheme for the distribution of the premiums to exhibitors of produce. As soon as these arrangements have been completed the list of premiums will be published.

It was determined to make every effort to keep street fakers away from the town on these Trade Day occasions, and a committee was appointed to confer with the council concerning it.

It was suggested that an effort be made to have the Frisco exhibit car visit Ada on the first Trade Day and have Mr. White deliver one of his famous lectures. Mr. McNair promised to try to secure him for the occasion.

It was also decided to apply to the railroads for rates to Ada on the first day, but Mr. McNair stated that he feared there would not be time to do this.

While considering matters along the line of improvement, the matter of a fair was mentioned, and J. W. Davis made some suggestions that may yet be carried into effect.

LEAD MINE FOUND AT LAWRENCE

W. H. Nettles has on exhibit some specimens of ore found on the place of his brother, M. Z. Nettles at Lawrence, which is rich in lead and also contains some zinc. Its weight indicates that lead is the principal constituent of the rock.

The ore is found about six feet below the surface and from what has been uncovered already there is no reason to doubt that a paying mine may be developed. From time to time specimens of ore have been picked up in various parts of the county and it is probable that the latest discovery may be the means of starting a real investigation of the mineral resources of Pontotoc county.

THE TENT MEETING

The subject tonight will be, The Dead—Where Are They, in Heaven or in Torment?

If you want to know what the Bible says about this subject come to the tent tonight corner 8th and Oak ave.

Deputies Duncan and Bolin and arrested a man today by the name of Burke San Guett, wanted at Sherman.

TEXAS MAN SAYS HE CAN MAKE IT RAIN

San Antonio, Tex., June 23.—J. M. Matthews of this city declares he has solved the problem of artificial rain-making and has invented a machine for the purpose, which he calls the "rainolette." Matthews has worked upon the problem of making rain clouds artificially for 35 years, and is quite sure that he has the matter in hand now and can precipitate a shower with his machine at any place desired. Some years ago, Matthews built one of his machines in a crude way in this city and while he did not bring on a deluge or cause a perceptible rise in the surface water levels, he was eminently satisfied with the results.

This machine is intended to drive an air current upward with a velocity of 80 miles an hour. By this process the lower or warmer strata of the atmosphere were mixed in such a manner that the moisture of the warm air is condensed by the cold upper strata. Mr. Matthews is confident that by the operation of his machine a rain cloud was formed which was seen by a number of people. In the recent circular giving details of this experiment, he gives the names of a number of people who say the rain fell in their vicinity while he was making his experiment.

Matthews starts the current from the earth and forces it up so rapidly through a high stack that the condensation takes place and rain clouds form. He maintains that with proper power he can produce a rain in any locality with his machine in ten to twenty hours at a trifling expense for fuel and operations.

CHOCTAW CONVENTION WANTS BETTER SCHOOLS

Hugo, Okla., June 22.—The convention of Choctaws which met at Goodland Academy, four miles west of Hugo, Tuesday, completed its labors and adjourned last night. Resolutions were adopted on many important topics, among them being one favoring the immediate sale of Indian coal and mineral lands, the expenditure of $5,000,000 for Indian schools and requesting the department of the Interior to furnish a statement of the amount of money due the Choctaws from the United States government, and urging an early settlement of the claim.

The convention demanded that the sale of the unallotted lands be continued until all had been sold, and it was asked that all persons be prohibited from hunting on the segregated lands except the Indians themselves. The convention adjourned to meet at Muskogee, the old capital of the Choctaw Nation, in October.

TEACHERS WANT TO COME TO OKLAHOMA

There is no dearth of school teachers for the coming year. Oklahoma attracts them and from all parts of the United States applications for places in Oklahoma schools are pouring in to the county superintendent, Supt. Collette of Muskogee county said today that he had on file in his office no less than eleven hundred applications from teachers who want to teach in Muskogee county. They are from every state in the union.

SPECIAL LETTER FROM WASHINGTON

(By Tavenner.)

Washington, June 23.—Why has the government been unable to control the trusts?

While this question has not as yet been definitely answered, the House investigating committee are bringing out testimony which tends to throw light on the subject at least to the end of showing that the great trusts of the country have at some time or another had most of the government prosecutors on their pay-rolls.

United States Attorney General Wickersham heads the list. Under oath he admitted that the last thing he did before taking charge of the prosecuting machinery of the nation was to draw down his share of a $25,000 fee from the sugar trust as a member of the New York law firm of Strong and Cadwallader.

Henry P. Taft, brother of the President, is still a member of this firm whose specialty is to show the sugar trust and other great industrial corporations how to evade the law and escape prosecution.

That Frank B. Kellogg, special counsel to the United States and widely advertised by the republicans as the great trust buster, has received thousands of dollars from the government at the same time that he was receiving big fees for acting as attorney for subsidiary concerns of the steel trust, was developed in testimony before the Stanley committee.

It appears that Mr. Kellogg, besides pocketing the $30,000 recently paid him by the government for serving as "trust buster" under Roosevelt, also received from the steel and every democrat in the senate save one.

Lloyd a Hard Worker.

Victory in the house has brought hard work and responsibility to the democratic leaders as well as honors.

As an example of the exacting duties of a Congressman of democratic faith, take the case of Hon. James T. Lloyd of the First Missouri district. Mr. Lloyd is chairman of the democratic congressional committee and as such assumes general supervision of the campaign in every district in the United States. He is also chairman of the standing committee on accounts and closely scrutinizes every item of expenditure in the lower house. He is also chairman of the special committee on organization, or clerical force, a job with a world of detail. In addition to all these and his onerous duties as a congressman, Mr. Lloyd delivers numerous addresses before societies, schools, etc., and is always to be found in his seat when the house is called to order.

Speaker Clark Against Gag Rule.

Speaker Champ Clark is opposed to the gag being applied to government employees. President Taft is endeavoring to enforce a Roosevelt rule which prohibits government employees from giving information even to members of congress. The employees are also prohibited from calling the attention of members to any grievances. Speaker Clark denounces this rule as un-American, and declares he will listen to grievances of employees when they desire to come to him and he defies anyone to interfere.

Bread Trust Has Easy Sailing.

A $25,000,000 bread trust which will operate, to start with in 21 large cities, has been formed in New York under the name of the General Baking Company. The alleged object of the new octopus is to "educate the public to a higher standard of quality in bread." Inquiry at the office of Attorney General Wickersham elicited the information that absolutely nothing was known there of the formation of "any bread trust." The reply was not unusual, as the attorney general's office is generally the last place in Washington to go to for information which might be construed to admit the existence of any trust.

Taft Will Have Opposition.

If the Taft republicans are really under the impression that the president will have no opposition for a renomination, they are laboring under an hallucination.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin is in the field, and progressive republican leaders in practically every state in the union are working for La Follette delegates.

Taft and sure defeat, or La Follette with a chance to win, is the battle cry of the La Follette forces.

GOSPEL TENT 16TH AND ASH

A good sized audience, the weather considered, was at the gospel tent corner 16th and Ash last night where the First Christian church is conducting a mission meeting. The meeting will go on each day until announced to the contrary.

The subject for last night was "The First Converts to Christianity." Considerable interest was manifested.

The subject for tonight will be "Choosing for Christ."

130 Cars of Cantaloupes.

Tucson, Ariz., June 23.—A cantaloupe train, believed to be the longest the world has ever seen, passed through the city Thursday en route to Chicago from the Imperial valley.

The train consisted of 130 cars, was a mile and a half in length and contained more than 1,000,000 pounds of cantaloupes. Because of its extreme length it would have been a tight squeeze to get it all on any side track along the line.

One big feature of the train was that the entire load was the result of one day's work among the little to Chicago from the Imperial valley. The inhabitants of Imperial valley have seen nothing, talked nothing, smelled nothing and eaten almost nothing but cantaloupes for two weeks.

W. L. REED BUYS FARMERS STATE BANK

Yesterday when the News expressed the opinion that W. L. Reed would sooner or later move back to Ada, it had no idea that anything was brewing, thinking that he was here only in the capacity of bank examiner, but based its guess that Mr. Reed would likely come back, simply on the usual custom of men who have once lived in this thriving town. This morning, however, it developed that Mr. Reed had prepared to return and become one of us again.

Yesterday evening a deal was consummated whereby Mr. Reed came in possession of the stock of R. M. Estes in the Farmers State Bank. He will move his family here immediately and will be here for the next two or three weeks until he gets things to moving smoothly. He will then complete what work he has on hand for the banking department as rapidly as possible and in a short time will be in the bank all of his time. His son Everett will also be connected with the bank. Mr. Reed says that Ada is good enough for him, and as he has been all over the state several times during the past two or three years, he should be a competent judge of a good town.

It gives the News pleasure to welcome the Reeds back to Ada. Mr. Reed is not only a thorough business man, but is a booster, and moreover the editor of the News has always felt grateful to him for favors shown him by Mr. Reed when a stranger and in need of friends.

LANKFORD ISSUES ULTIMATUM TO BANKS

Oklahoma City, June 23.—National banks which surrendered state charters to avoid paying the last assessment for the benefit of the state guaranty fund, and against which suit has been brought by the state banking board for collection of that assessment, were notified Thursday by Banking Commissioner Lanford that after July 20 they would no longer be approved as reserve agents for Oklahoma state banks. In his letter Mr. Lanford says:

"You are withholding funds which rightfully belong to the state bankers of Oklahoma, and this is to notify you that on and after July 20, 1911, your bank will be disapproved as a depository for state banks. This conclusion is reached after mature deliberation and for the reason that you refused paying the one per cent emergency assessment which you owe and which is just as much an obligation, both legally and morally, as you or anyone else could assume."

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

An automobilist may regard as rank presumption unasked for advice concerning his "gas wagon" from one who has not yet established his finances on a basis that gives him a glimmer of a hope that he may some day ride in a "go devil" of his own, but really and truly some of our citizens are incurring a grave danger in the habit they have formed of running their machines to the north end of the paving on Broadway across the Frisco tracks and then turning back towards town.

The extent of the train and switch service on the Frisco and the fact that box cars on the sidings often obscure the view, makes this a dangerous pastime.

The News hopes that none of our automobilists will get hurt, for they are citizens too valuable to lose, and be sides we need their machines for taxation purposes.

Russia Harder on Jews.

No less than 120,000 Jews were driven out of Russia during 1910 by systematic official persecution, according to the annual report of the Central German Jewish Relief Association, which acts in co-operation with the leading Jews of America and Great Britain in ameliorating the lot of their oppressed co-religionists in Russia.

Of this total mentioned, 93,107 emigrated to the United States, or 25 per cent more than during 1909.

The German association declares that the anti-Jewish propaganda in Russia is becoming more heartless, tyrannical and widespread, from hour to hour. The Czar's government has now adopted the principle of limiting educational opportunities for Jewish children as the most practical and surest way of driving the Jews out of the country.

The German association informs its supporters that, in these appalling circumstances, there is no alternative but to continue to provide the ways and means for enabling the Russian Jews to start life afresh
 on American soil.

Thousands of families who are rendered homeless from month to month cross German soil, but no encouragement is given them to remain there on account of the already thoroughly overcrowded condition of the local industrial markets.

JACK JOHNSON WAS BAR-

RED FROM CORONATION

London, Eng., June 23.—Jack Johnson, heavy weight champion of the world, was barred from Westminster abbey today when he tried to enter to see the coronation. Johnson was armed with two tickets given him
 by Lord Lonsdale, the famous sporting peer of England, who has given belts to a number of prize fighters. When the colored champion presented them he was told that they were not admission tickets to the abbey. Johnson was accompanied by his white wife and did not linger about the door, but soon got seats on the reviewing stand, for which the tickets were intended.

HOME TOWN HELPS

VALUE OF CITY BEAUTIFUL

Aside From Aesthetic, Commercial
 Benefits Are of the Greatest Importance.

In the recent city planting congress in London reasons enough were given for the beautifying of towns. One, however, and an important one, was not, we believe, mentioned. This is the commercial benefit which accrues to a city which has become famous for the beauty of its buildings, the vistas unfolded by its streets, its public parks and gardens. For ages Paris has been known as the playground of the civilized world. Not only have countless thousands visited it for its ancient palaces, its storehouses of art treasures, and its historic associations, but because of the more modern beauties of its architecture, its boulevards and its parks and pleasure grounds. But many of the ancient buildings which delighted the eye of the artist have had to give way to the march of progress and the needs of today. So Paris is trying to beautify its modern features that some of its landmarks of the past will not be missed.

So strongly do the Parisians believe in city beautification as an investment that the municipality has been authorized to borrow $175,000,000 for this purpose. A part of this, $47,000,000, has just been raised by an issue of bonds, which, in spite of labor difficulties and other obstacles, was oversub-scribed twenty times. At least two leading thoroughfares are to be greatly extended, new parks established and new government buildings erected.

In America the chief opposition to improvements of this sort are likely to come from the classes which would most be benefited by them. Chicago's chief claim on visitors is its system of parks and boulevards. There is no telling how many of our guests are attracted by these splendid driveways and pleasure grounds. The Chicago plan, which commercially may be looked upon as an expensive dream of visionaries, would, if carried out, be the city's chief asset. Not only would it conduce to immeasurable benefit and delight to those who live here, but it would attract millions of people from elsewhere, and these indirectly would help pay for its cost and maintenance.
 —Chicago Tribune.

Sweets to the Sweet.

"Willie, what are you eating?"
 "Candy."
 "Where did you get it?"
 "Bought it."
 "Where did you get the money?"
 "Your beau gave it to me when I saw him kiss your maid."

The Recourse.

"My father will not allow me to marry you," said the tearful maiden to her fond lover. "He says you are too much in the air about your business."
 "Then, darling," said the young aviator, "come fly with me."

No Need.

"I wonder," said the casual visitor at the police court, to the clerk, "that you seem to take no interest in the weather forecast here."
 "We don't have to," replied the clerk. "All days are fine days in this court."

THE OUTLOOK.

He won a wager which was small,
The joy of triumph filled him then;
He could not understand at all
Why failure saddened other men.

A pretty woman gave him praise,
To him the future seemed aglow;
He could not understand the ways
Of men who clung to borrowed woes.

So, what a change is often wrought
Within a moment, O my friend;
He burned his finger and he thought
The world was coming to an end.

Vain Girl.

Mary had a pretty foot
And Mary seemed to know it.
'Cause everywhere that Mary went
She tried her best to show it.

Blew Too Hard.

"Do you remember the fat man who used to live across the way and practise on a trombone every morning?"
"Yes."
"He's dead."
"Serves him right!"
"Oh, he wasn't murdered. He ruptured a blood vessel."

Duly Informed.

Child—Mamma, what is a common person?
Mother—Why, child, a common person it is—well, it's a person that we do not associate with. Why do you ask?
Child—'Cause Mrs. Nextdoor said you was a common person.

No Venus.

Little Pitchers—I say, Miss Oldgirl, you ain't in the fire department, are you?
Miss Oldgirl—Certainly not, Tommy. What makes you ask such a question?
Little Pitchers—Because I heard brother Will say you was a false alarm.

Going the Pace.

"I understand they are up-to-date people?"
"Decidedly so. They stand off the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker, so they can live continuously in an atmosphere of dust and gasoline."

Dodging.

"That fellow is a most remarkable runner."
"Who? Burroughs?"
"Yes. He's always running into debt and yet he's forever running away from the people to whom he is in debt."—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Present Need.

"Ah!" said an enthusiastic admirer, "you will live in the hearts of your countrymen."
"Maybe so," answered the father of a new idea, "but the problem that confronts me now is how to pay the rent of a flat."

Sour Grapes.

Miss Woodbe (who lost)—Your husband is evidently a bigamist. You should apply for a divorce at once.
Mrs. Gothim (who won)—Why, what do you mean?
Miss Woodbe—Well, he has been telling it around that he had married both beauty and brains.

Wanted to Be Happy.

"I suppose you want me to look as pleasant as possible?" said the sister.
"Certainly, sir," replied the photographer. "And I'll have to ask you for a small deposit in advance."
"What's that for?"
"That's so that I can look pleasant, too."

The Frisco's Pacific Coast Service.

The Frisco has perfected traffic arrangements with the Santa Fe whereby the first named will have through service to the Pacific coast. This will apply to freight and passenger service alike. In a short time, probably within a month, a person can go from Tulsa to the Pacific coast without a change of cars. This new arrangement should add greatly to the growing popularity of the Frisco road.

Mattoon, Ill., June 22.—Patrick Laden, who for four years has been superintendent of the Peoria division of the Illinois Central and of the Indianapolis Southern railroad has resigned to become general manager of the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad, with headquarters in Muskogee, Okla.

The change is effective July 1, when he will take active charge of all departments connected with operation. Patrick Laden has been twenty-five years in the service of the Illinois Central system.

Many a man has become a pessimist because when he had done something that merited some show of gratitude, and he stopped to receive what he thought was coming, he received instead a good sound kick from some jealous yahoo who was close on his heels. As Ralph Parlette puts it there is no time to stop to be thanked; a man must keep shoving on regardless of blame or praise, for no matter what he does he will get plenty of the first and very little of the last. The successful man pays very little attention to either.
